Rule of the Month

In this Arizona Golf Association Rule of the Month segment, sponsored by Van's Golf Shops, we learn more about Rule 23: Four-Ball. Also known as Best Ball, Four-Ball is played either in match play or stroke play, where you and your partner compete as a side with each of you playing a separate ball. Watch as AGA Executive Director Joe Foley elaborates on the scoring aspect, where your side's score for a hole is the lower score of the two of you on that hole.

RULES TRIVIA

Rules Trivia

Test your Rules of Golf knowledge with this trivia question:

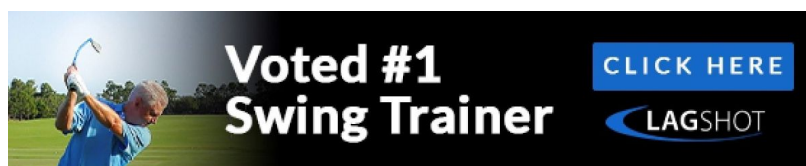

What is the Penalty, if any?

Early in the round, Player A's tee shot comes to rest in a fairway bunker. On the way to the ball in the fairway bunker, Player A stops briefly at a different bunker and makes several practice swings touching the sand. After raking to restore the bunker to its original condition, Player A proceeds to the ball in play in the fairway bunker.

Does Player A receive a Penalty?

- A: One-Stroke Penalty
- B: Two-Stroke Penalty
- C: No Penalty

The answer can be found at the end of this newsletter!

RULES TRIVIA ANSWER

C: No Penalty

Players can take practice swings, or rake the sand, in bunkers that do not contain the player's ball. Players are not allowed to do either in the bunker that contains the player's ball. See Rule 12.2b(1).
